Santa Clara Convention Center

The 12 Steps of Narcotics Anonymous

1. We admitted that we were powerless over our addiction, that our lives had become unmanageable.
2. We came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.
3. We made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.
4. We made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.
5. We admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.
6. We were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.
7. We humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.
8. We made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.
9. We made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.
10. We continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong promptly admitted it.
11. We sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.
12. Having had a spiritual awakening as a result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to addicts, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

We Do Recover

When at the end of the road we find that we can no longer function as a human being, either with or without drugs, we all face the same dilemma. What is there left to do? There seems to be this alternative: either go on as best we can to the bitter ends–jails, institutions or death– or find a new way to live. In years gone by, very few addicts ever had this last choice. Those who are addicted today are more fortunate. For the first time in man's entire history, a simple way has been proving itself in the lives of many addicts. It is available to us all. This is a simple spiritual–not religious–program, known as Narcotics Anonymous.

(Basic Text, pg. 87)

WELCOME TO NCCNA XXXVIII

NCCNA XXXVIII is a celebration of our recovery through the program of Narcotics Anonymous. We are glad you have chosen to celebrate with us. We wish to extend a warm welcome to all.

This year's theme is We Do Recover. We are grateful to join together with addicts seeking recovery in Narcotics Anonymous.

We need to remember that our personal conduct is a reflection of our program in action. Our individual behavior affects the entire fellowship of Narcotics Anonymous, as we present ourselves to the public and carry the message of recovery to the addict who still suffers.

While we visit these facilities and the city of Santa Clara, we ask that you join us in the spirit of unity as we practice the principles of recovery. We can show our gratitude by how we treat convention center staff, hotel staff and properties.

Our first tradition states, "...personal recovery depends on NA unity..." As we mark the 38th consecutive year of our convention, we are confident that in spite of any differences and difficulties we may face, we can stand together, and that "...no addict seeking recovery need die without a chance to find a better way of life…" (Basic Text, pg. xxiii)

We are grateful for everyone's effort in this celebration of our unity and our recovery.

Thank you - The NCCNA XXXVIII Committee

God,
grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference.

Take my will and my life.
Guide me in my recovery.
Show me how to live.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

Service Animals: NCCNA's insurance policy DOES NOT provide coverage for pets of any kind at the convention. The only exception is if a person needs the assistance of a service animal as defined in the Americans with Disabilities Act (see below).

The text of the revised title iii regulations of the Americans with Disabilities Act: Part 36 Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Disability in Public Accommodations and Commercial Facilities (as amended by the final rule published on September 15, 2010) § 36.104 Definitions Service animal means any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability. Other species of animals, whether wild or domestic, trained or untrained, are not service animals for the purposes of this definition. The work or tasks performed by a service animal must be directly related to the handler´s disability. Examples of work or tasks include, but are not limited to, assisting individuals who are blind or have low vision with navigation and other tasks, alerting individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing to the presence of people or sounds, providing non-violent protection or rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, assisting an individual during a seizure, alerting individuals to the presence of allergens, retrieving items such as medicine or the telephone, providing physical support and assistance with balance and stability to individuals with mobility disabilities, and helping persons with psychiatric and neurological disabilities by preventing or interrupting impulsive or destructive behaviors. The crime deterrent effects of an animal´s presence and the provision of emotional support, well-being, comfort, or companionship do not constitute work or tasks for the purposes of this definition.

http://www.ada.gov/regs2010/titleIII_2010/titleIII_2010_integrated.htm

Any attendees who choose to bring non-service animals will not be allowed inside NCCNA meetings or events.

Thank You,

Northern California Regional Service Office, Inc.

Fourth Tradition Statement

"It's also important to consider how we're viewed by society. When NA meetings first began in many places, it was illegal for addicts to meet under any circumstances. Even where meetings are legal, the public often views groups of addicts with alarm. Until NA has established a good public reputation, it may be difficult for addicts to find meeting places. If our behavior as NA members is still destructive and selfish, we will once again have difficulty meeting openly. We help protect our reputation as a fellowship when we use our meeting facilities with respect, keeping them clean and in good repair. We should take care to act like good neighbors, conducting ourselves respectfully. Even something as simple as the name a group chooses may reflect on NA as a whole. If the public reputation of Narcotics Anonymous is somehow impaired, addicts may die."

WORLD SERVICE CONFERENCE 2016

JUST FOR TODAY

March 24 Letting go of the past

"It is not where we were that counts, but where we are going."

(Basic Text, p. 23)

When we first find recovery, some of us feel shame or despair at calling ourselves "addicts." In the early days, we may be filled with both fear and hope as we struggle to find new meaning in our lives. The past may seem inescapable and overpowering. It may be hard to think of ourselves in any way other than the way we always have.

While memories of the past can serve as reminders of what's waiting for us if we use again, they can also keep us stuck in a nightmare of shame and fear. Though it may be difficult to let go of those memories, each day in recovery can bring us that much farther away from our active addiction. Each day, we can find more to look forward to and less to punish ourselves for.

In recovery, all doors are open to us. We have many choices. Our new life is rich and full of promise. While we cannot forget the past, we don't have to live in it. We can move on.

JUST FOR TODAY: I will pack my bags and move out of my past into a present filled with hope.

FRIDAY

JUST FOR TODAY

March 25 — I can't, but we can

"From the isolation of our addiction, we find a fellowship of people with a common bond... Our faith, strength, and hope come from people sharing their recovery..."

(Basic Text, p. 98)

Admit no weakness, conceal all shortcomings, deny every failure, go it alone—that was the creed many of us followed. We denied that we were powerless over our addiction, that our lives had become unmanageable, despite all evidence to the contrary. Many of us would not surrender without the assurance there was something worth surrendering to. Many of us took our First Step only when we had evidence that addicts could recover in Narcotics Anonymous.

In NA, we find others who've been in the same predicament, with the same needs, who've found tools that work for them. These addicts are willing to share those tools with us and give us the emotional support we need as we learn to use them. Recovering addicts know how important the help of others can be because they've been given that help themselves. When we become a part of Narcotics Anonymous, we join a society of addicts like ourselves, a group of people who know that we help one another recover.

JUST FOR TODAY: I will join in the bond of recovery. I will find the experience, strength, and hope I need in the Fellowship of Narcotics Anonymous.

The Twelve Steps of Narcotics Anonymous, as adapted from A.A., are the basis of our recovery program. We have only broadened their perspective. We follow the same path with a single exception; our identification as addicts is all-inclusive with respect to any mood-changing, mind-altering substance. Alcoholism is too limited a term for us; our problem is not a specific substance, it is a disease called addiction. We believe that as a fellowship, we have been guided by a Greater Consciousness, and are grateful for the direction that has enabled us to build upon a proven program of recovery.

SATURDAY

JUST FOR TODAY

March 26 — Trusting a sponsor - worth the risk

"In seeking a sponsor, most members look for someone they feel they can learn to trust, someone who seems compassionate…"

IP No. 11, Sponsorship, Revised

The idea of sponsorship may be new to us. We have spent many years without direction, relying only on self-interest, suspecting everyone, trusting no one. Now that we're learning to live in recovery, we find we need help. We can't do it alone anymore; we must take the risk of trusting another human being. Often, the first person we take that risk with is our sponsor—someone we respect, someone we identify with, someone we have reason to trust.

As we open up to our sponsor, a bond develops between us. We disclose our secrets and develop confidence in our sponsor's discretion. We share our concerns and learn to value our sponsor's experience. We share our pain and are met with empathy. We get to know one another, respect one another, love one another. The more we trust our sponsor, the more we learn to trust ourselves.

Trust helps us move away from a life of fear, confusion, suspicion, and indirection. In the beginning, it feels risky to trust another addict. But that trust is the same principle we apply in our relationship with a Higher Power—risky or not, our experience tells us we can't do without it. And the more we take the risk of trusting our sponsor, the more open we will feel about our lives.

JUST FOR TODAY: I want to grow and change. I will risk trusting my sponsor and find the rewards of sharing.

JUST FOR TODAY

March 27 Looking for the assets

"In accordance with the principles of recovery, we try not to judge, stereotype, or moralize with each other."

(Basic Text, p. 11)

How many times in our recovery have we misunderstood the behavior of another, immediately formed a judgment, applied a label, and neatly tucked the individual into a pigeonhole? Perhaps they had developed a different understanding of a Power greater than themselves than we had, so we concluded their beliefs were unspiritual. Or maybe we saw a couple having an argument; we assumed their relationship was sick, only to find out later that their marriage had prospered for many years.

Thoughtlessly tossing our fellows into categories saves us the effort of finding out anything about them. Every time we judge the behavior of another, we cease to see them as potential friends and fellow travelers on the road to recovery.

If we happened to ask those we are judging if they appreciate being stereotyped, we would receive a resounding "no" in response. Would we feel slighted if this were done to us? Yes, indeed. Our best qualities are what we want others to notice. In the same way, our fellow recovering addicts want to be well thought of. Our program of recovery asks us to look positively at life. The more we concentrate on the positive qualities in others, the more we'll notice them in ourselves.

JUST FOR TODAY: I will set aside my negative judgments of others, and concentrate instead on appreciating the favorable qualities in all.

As recovering addicts, we come to know gratitude. As our defects are removed, we are free to become all that we can. We emerge as new individuals with an awareness of ourselves and the ability to take our places in the world.

Sí, nos recuperamos

Cuando al final del camino nos damos cuenta de que no podemos seguir funcionando como seres humanos, ni con drogas ni sin ellas, todos nos enfrentamos al mismo dilema: ¿Qué queda por hacer? Parece que hay dos alternativas: o continuamos lo mejor que podamos hasta el amargo final (cárceles, hospitales o la muerte) o encontramos una nueva manera de vivir. Años atrás, muy pocos adictos pudieron escoger esta segunda posibilidad. Hoy en día tenemos más suerte. Por primera vez en la historia, existe a disposición de todos nosotros un sencillo programa espiritual —no religioso— llamado Narcóticos Anónimos, que ha entrado en la vida de muchos adictos.

NOTES

NOTES

The 12 Traditions of Narcotics Anonymous

1. Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends on NA unity.
2. For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority–a loving God as He may express Himself in our groupconscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern.
3. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop using.
4. Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or NA as a whole.
5. Each group has but one primary purpose–to carry the. message to the addict who still suffers.
6. An NA group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the NA name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property or prestige divert us from our primary purpose.
7. Every NA group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.
8. Narcotics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers.
9. NA, as such, ought never be organized, but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.
10. Narcotics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the NA name ought never be drawn into public controversy.
11. Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio, and films.
12. Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.
